ZGames Technology, Technology for the betting industry
Full Stack Developer

Manta, Ecuador, on-site
July 2023 – Present

- Own the frontend architecture of a multi-tenant betting and casino portal with 50,000+ registered users, where each operator keeps its brand by swapping design tokens.
- Cut the time to build a new frontend module by 75% and inline styles by 90%, through reusable components and a design token system.
- Help set the team's architectural standards, review code and keep technical debt from piling up.
- Integrate casino and sportsbook providers, and test the money flows before certification.
- Write backend services in Node.js and TypeScript, with MongoDB queries for reports, users, bets, transactions and settings.
- Add structured logs in Seq to the services and follow how the flows behave in production.
